CLASS ACTION

Judge George C. Hanks, Jr.

PLAINTIFFS' SUPPLEMENTAL INITIAL DISCLOSURES PURSUANT TO FEDERAL RULES OF CIVIL PROCEDURE 26(a)(1) AND 26(e)

Pursuant to Rules 26(a)(1) and 26(e) of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure, Court-appointed class plaintiffs FNY Partners Fund LP, FNY Managed Accounts, LLC, Paul J. Burbach, and Plumbers and Pipefitters National Pension Fund (“Class Plaintiffs”), along with plaintiff Camelot Event Driven Fund, a Series of Frank Funds Trust (together with Class Plaintiffs, “Plaintiffs”), hereby submit their Initial Disclosures.

These disclosures are made without waiver of, or prejudice to, any objections Plaintiffs may have. Plaintiffs expressly reserve all objections, including, but not limited to: (a) relevance; (b) attorney-client privilege; (c) work product protection; (d) privacy; (e) any other applicable privilege or protection under federal or state law; (f) undue burden; (g) materiality; (h) overbreadth; and (i) admissibility. Plaintiffs make these Initial Disclosures based upon information reasonably available to them and reserve the right to clarify, amend, modify, correct or supplement the information contained herein.

Defendants are in a better position to know the identities of individuals and entities that are likely to possess discoverable information relevant to Plaintiffs’ claims. Because discovery has only recently commenced, Plaintiffs have not had the opportunity to review information within Defendants’ control that might lead to the identification of additional individuals or entities likely to possess discoverable information. Plaintiffs hereby reserve their right to amend and supplement at any time this Initial Disclosure Statement and the information provided pursuant to their initial disclosure obligations.

I. Individuals Likely to Have Discoverable Information Pursuant to Rule 26(a)(1)(A)(i)

Plaintiffs identify the following individuals and entities likely to have discoverable information in this matter that Plaintiffs may use to support their claims or defenses, unless the use would be solely for impeachment, pursuant to Rule 26(a)(1)(A)(i). This list is not exhaustive as Plaintiffs anticipate that other individuals may have information relevant to the issues in this action, and these disclosures are made based upon information reasonably available to Plaintiffs at this early stage of the litigation and without prejudice to Plaintiffs' right to identify or rely on facts provided by additional witnesses.

1. The following have information regarding Plaintiffs' transactions in Alta Mesa Resources, Inc. ("Alta Mesa") securities:

II. Description of Categories of Documents Within Plaintiff's Possession, Custody or Control Pursuant to Rule 26(a)(1)(A)(ii)

Plaintiffs identify the following category of documents in their possession, custody, or control that they may use to support their claims or defenses, unless use would be solely for impeachment, pursuant to Rule 26(a)(1)(A)(ii): documents evidencing Plaintiffs' transactions of Alta Mesa (formerly Silver Run Acquisition Corporation II) common stock and warrants between August 16, 2017 and May 17, 2019, inclusive (the "Class Period"). Plaintiffs reserve the right to use any and all documents produced by any other party or non-party in this action.

III. Computation of Categories of Damages Pursuant to Rule 26(a)(1)(A)(iii)

Plaintiffs seek compensatory damages (including interest), attorneys' fees and costs, and any applicable equitable/injunctive or other relief as the Court may deem just and proper for the class claims set forth in the operative complaint (ECF 218). The calculation of damages in this type of action requires expert testimony. Therefore, at the appropriate time, Plaintiffs will provide an expert opinion or opinions in accordance with the Docket Control Order and Rule 26 of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure.

IV. Production of an Applicable Insurance Agreement Pursuant to Rule 26(a)(1)(A)(iv)

Not applicable to Plaintiffs.
